COLUMBUS CENTENNIAL.

Commissioners at the Capital Looking After Exhibits.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Mr. R. B. Brown, of the Zanesville Courier, and Gen. W. B. Hamilton, of Athens, two of the commissioners of the Columbus centennial of the settlement of the northwest territory, which opens on the 4th of September, are in Washington, looking after exhibits for their respective departments. Mr. Brown is the commissioner for printing and journalism. He has already secured one of the antiquities in presses, and hopes to be able to practically illustrate the progress of the "art preservative" down to the best machines of the present day. General Hamilton is collecting exhibits in the line of commerce and transportation. Mr. Outhwaite has a resolution pending authorizing loans from the government departments for the Columbus centennial.

THE NEW CHINESE TREATY.

Absolute Prohibition of the Importation of Chinese Laborers.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Secretary Bayard and the Chinese ministry are expected to sign the new Chinese treaty in a few days and it will then go to the senate. It is an absolute prohibition of the importation of Chinese laborers. It allows any Chinaman who has made this country his home and has acquired $1,000 worth of property to visit China and return. This concession is expected to meet with the opposition of the Pacific coast senators. It is claimed that the average Chinaman would not hesitate to swear he had $1,000 worth of property, whether he had or not.

PAID THE PENALTY.

Macy Warden is Hung at Jeffersonville at Noon.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 9.—Macy Warden was hung at 10:50 this morning at Jeffersonville, Ind., for the murder of Frank Harris, a convict in the prison south, of Jeffersonville.

On the scaffold he said: "I have a few remarks to make before I die. If any of you ever take a glass of whisky, before you put it to your lips think of Macy Warner, with this rope in his hand, and then look into the bottom of the glass and see if you can't see a rope there. This is all I have to say."

THOMAS J. POTTER.

Death of the Vice President of the Union Pacific.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Mr. Thomas J. Potter, the vice-president and general manager of the Union Pacific Railroad company, died here this morning.

MUST WIN OR DIE!

Chief Arthur Says the Brotherhood Must Use Every Honorable Means to Win the Fight.

CHICAGO, March 9.—Arthur has issued a circular in which he says the Brotherhoods of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen are now engaged in a life and death struggle. War has been declared between them and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad. The Brotherhood can not recede from their demands on the wages question and maintain their self-respect or their organization. They must win or die. They can only respect the claims of neutrals, so long as they remain neutral. They must and will exhaust every honorable means to win the fight.

A train of Burlington cars was run in on the Fort Wayne tracks yesterday and delivered to that company to be transported to the east Fort Wayne yardmaster. He endeavored to get the cars switched, but after a half dozen engineers had refused to touch them, he gave it up and the cars were left where the Burlington switch engine first switched them.

Another train of Burlington cars was run into the Michigan Central yards and treated the same way. The belt line engineers positively refuse to haul Burlington freight.

CHICAGO, March 9.—The Brotherhood yesterday issued a circular to the public, in which they say they are willing to submit to the arbitration of three railroad managers, and that if this strike continues the responsibility is with the Burlington and Quincy. Manager Stone, when asked if he would arbitrate, said, "We have nothing to arbitrate." Rev. Dr. Witherell Withrow, of the Presbyterian church, says the refusal of the railroad to arbitrate, marks that the railway is in the wrong.

"Far over-shadowing in importance," said Chief Arthur, "far above the incident of the Burlington's attempt to seek relief in the courts, is the stand taken by the big Rock Island system. The letter sent by General Manager St. John, of the Rock Island, declaring that he would not inflict a great injury upon the communities depending on his road in an attempt to do the impossible is very significant indeed, and perhaps contains the key to the situation. It is a good, manly letter and carries the Rock Island's pledge of neutrality."

Chief Arthur dismissed as comparatively unimportant the petition filed by the Burlington managers for injunction against him. "If the court enjoins me from doing certain things," said he, "most assuredly I will not do them."

PITTSBURG, March 9.—The most reliable information is that the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy trouble will not extend to the Fort Wayne and Pan Handle lines of the Pennsylvania company. An official said: "The engineers are not fools enough to try and force us to stop receiving Chicago, Burlington and Quincy freight when we are compelled to receive it by law. I do not believe Chief Arthur has for a moment entertained such an idea."

A GENERAL STRIKE NOT CONTEMPLATED.

CHICAGO, Mrach 9.—J. J. O'Brien, who is directly associated with Chief Arthur in the present trouble, and who is chairman of the press committee, said: "There is no imminent danger of a general strike on all the roads, for the reason that neither Mr. Arthur nor those associated with him feel like paralyzing the trade of so great a territory. There is an immense amount of suffering now going on along the lines of the Burlington, at points that have no outlet. Our advices say that in these places the people are suffering for the necessaries of life; that many have been throw out of employment, and that fuel is fast giving out.

It is the opinion of the members of the executive committee now in charge of the strike that the Burlington is inclined to meet them half way in the matters under dispute. It is a fact that the grievance committees are now meeting on all the roads which center in Chicago or connect with eastern lines, and that in some cases there are real grounds for grievance. This is not the case, however, on the Chicago and Northern system, because its engineers and firemen have been conceded all that is just, and fair, and equitable. To order a general strike would be to stagnate the business of the country, to throw tens of thousands out of employment and to cause untold suffering. Before a general strike is ordered, before the grievance committee or even one road shall call upon Chief Arthur to sanction a strike, the question must be given long and careful consideration."

Judgment for Over Twenty Millions.

Judge Gresham, at Indianapolis, yesterday, rendered a supplemental decree in favor of the plaintiff, in the suit of the Central Trust company, of New York, and James Cheney, of Fort Wayne, against the Wabash railway, for the sum of $21,721,619.05, principal and interest upon the debt of $19,132,753.40, adjudged to be due the plaintiff from the defendants on the 8th of January, 1886.

At that time an order of sale was granted by the court, and the property described in the decree was sold, but the amount realized was only $625,000.

SULLIVAN-MITCHELL.

LONDON, March 9.—The Sullivan-Mitchell fight has been postponed on account of a squabble. It will probably take place Monday.

Arrangements are being made to extend Root & Co.'s store forty feet further west, thus making it one of the largest store rooms in the state.

GERMANY WEEPS

Over the Death of Emperor William, Which Occurred at 11:15 this Morning.

BERLIN, March 9.—The emperor died at 11:15 this morning.

The eye-witnesses of the scenes at the death of the emperor state that during the last few hours he suffered no pain. Shortly after 8 o'clock the members of the family staying at the palace, the court dignataries, generals and ministers of state, were summoned to the chamber in which the emperor lay dying.

The emperor was in a half reclining position on a camp bedstead. All the members of the royal family took places at his bedside.

The room was crowded. Prince William stood nearest the emperor, and half bending over the couch, he earnestly watched the face of the dying monarch until he expired.

The emperor's remains lie covered with white cloth on the bedstead on which he died in the imperial chamber. The body is surrounded with candles. The expression of the face is extremely peaceful and placid.

The emperor died holding the empress' hand. He had been in a stupor since 3 o'clock. He was delirious for a brief period, at 5 o'clock, during which he has reported to have exclaimed:

"I am a man of peace, but if Russia forces me to war, I shall faithfully side with my ally, Austria."

The members of the royal family left the palace at 2 o'clock.

The emperor will be buried in the Mausoleum, at Charlottenburg.

ANNOUNCING THE EMPEROR'S DEATH.

When the reichstag met to-day Prince Bismarck, with deep emotion, informed the members of the death of the emperor.

He also announced that the new king would assume the title of Frederick II

When Prince Bismarck entered the reichstag at 12:35 this afternoon he deposited the imperial order, closing the session. The order was the last official document signed by the late emperor. Prince Bismarck informed the reichstag that Emperor Frederick will leave San Remo to-morrow and that he will arrive at Berlin in due course of time.

At a meeting of the lower house of the Prussian diet to-day, Herr Von Putkamer, the vice president of the Prussian ministerial council, announced the death of the emperor.

The house received the communication with evident satisfaction, the more so because Von Puttkamer, in announcing the death of Emperor William to the lower house of the diet, had not alluded to the new emperor. This omission had created a painful impression. The reichstag adjourned for an indefinite period.

THE NEW EMPEROR.

SAN REMO, March 9.—The emperor of Germany, (Frederick William), passed a fairly good night. During the early part of the night he was restless, but he slept better afterward.

SAN REMO, March 9.—The crown prince and princess of Germany will leave San Remo immediately for Berlin.

SAN REMO, March 9.—Emperor Frederick II. was greatly disturbed on hearing the news of his fathers death, but is now much more tranquil. He has received hundreds of telegrams of condolence. The new emperor and his wife will leave for Berlin at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

THE FEELING ELSEWHERE.

LONDON, March 9.—A general surprise is expressed that the house of commons did not adjourn in consequence of Emperor William's death.

PARIS, March 9.—The parliamentary chambers will not adjourn on account of the German emperor's death.

VIENNA, March 9.—The reichstag has adjourned because of the death of the German emperor.

PARIS, March 9.—President Carnot has sent a telegram of condolence to Frederick William at San Remo. All the members of the French cabinet called, and inserted their names at the German embassy.

NEW YORK, March 9.—A London dispatch to the Times says: Here in England there is rejoicing that the English princess, who is the best beloved of her whole race, and who made such a splendid and resolute fight against the whole Berlin court ring to keep her husband alive, has triumphed. She will be empress of Germany now, at least for a time, and no German intrigues, not even if given the whole weight of her son's influence, can rob her of her rank, her dower and her share in the crown estates.

LONDON, March 9.—Flags are at half mast generally throughout England on account of the death of Emperor William at 11:15 this morning. Prince Henry, of Battenburg, conveyed a message from the queen to Count Von Hatzfeldt, the German embassador expressing her majesty's sorrow at the emperors death.

LONDON, March 9.—Dispatches from the continent say the Paris and Vienna bourses are firm to-day. Hamburg and Frankfort bourses are closed.

LONDON, March 9.—The queen was dressed in deep black when she took her carriage to exercise in the gardens of Buckingham Palace today. The court has been ordered to wear mourning for a month. All state ceremonies have been cancelled. Prince Wales, Prince Christian and Prince Henry, of Battenberg, who will represent the queen, will attend the emperor's funeral.

HOOSIER DEMOCRATS

The State Central Committee Holds a Council—E. P. Richardson Elected Chairman.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 9.—The meeting of the democratic state central committee yesterday brought a large number of representive democrats here from all parts of the state. E. P. Richardson, of Pike county, was unanimously elected chairman, Rice and Sheerin both positively refusing to serve. Mr. Richardson has served two terms in the state senate, is a wide-awake democrat, and has represented the Second distric for a long time on the state central committee.

The date of the state convention was fixed at April 26. The ratio of representation in the convention was fixed at one delegate for each two hundred votes cast for Governor Gray in 1884, and one additional delegate for every fraction over one hundred votes so cast.

Much interest centers in the nomination for governor. Colonel Matson is here. He said that he was an out-and-out candidate for the nomination of governor, and if he did not get it, it would not be because he had not made an effort. He had received many assurances of support, and thinks his chances are very good. Regarding Mr. Bynum's alleged candidacy, he said he knew nothing, as he had not talked to that gentleman about it.

From another source it was learned that Mr. Bynum has said to several democrats that he will not be a candidate, and the failure of the union labor party to indorse him in some way, at its convention, yesterday, is regarded by some as practically taking him out of the race.

Capt W. R. Myers is making a determined canvass for the nomination, and Green Smith is also doing something in the same line, but the returns thus far are not very encouraging. Congressman Shively is also a candidate, believing that he will be very strong with the labor element. From present indications, dark horses being barred, the fight is between Matson and Myers, with the chances about equally divided.

Regarding the rest of the state ticket, there is a practical concession that the nominees of 1866 will be again selected, with possibly one or two exceptions. Thomas Byrne, of Evansville, is undecided whether to make to make the race for treasurer again, and, as he is now in New York, where he has a good position offered him, his views could not be ascertained to-day.

A significant fact developed is that H. D. McMullen, the candidate for attorney general two years ago, has written a letter to John R. Wilson, saying that he does not want to make the race again, and this fortifies Mr. Wilson's candidacy and makes him formidable.

Andrew M. Sweeney, who was a former candidate for superintendent of public instruction, publishes a card declining to again enter the race.

Charles A. Munson, of Fort Wayne, who was on the ticket for auditor; R. W. Meirs, of Bloomington, who was the candidate for secretary, are in the field again, and are now here.

HE CAME HOME TO DIE.

Charles Downer, the Missing Teller, Shoots Himself in a Church.

TROY, N. Y., March 9.—Nearly two weeks ago Chas. Downer, for years a teller in the National bank of Castleton, suddenly disappeared. Rumors were scattered broadcast that Downer's accounts were in a bad shape, but Frank Harder, president of the bank, states that Downer's accounts are all correct and that a balance stands to his credit. Detectives were at once employed to find the missing teller, but in vain

Yesterday Mrs. Downer received a letter from her husband dated at Springfield, Mass., last Sunday. Mr. Downer stated that he had come to his senses at a hotel in Springfield and did not know how he had come there. In the letter he stated that he had pains in his head, and the postscript to the letter gave signs of a wandering mind, the writer's intellect evidently failing as he wrote.

In the afternoon some parties entered the basement of the Reformed church at Castleton and discovered Downer lying on the floor unconscious, with a pistol, one chamber empty, by his side. He was removed to his home, where he died shortly after without regaining consciousness. How or when he reached Castleton and wandered into the church no one knows. The conductors on the trains he must have ridden on have no recollection of seeing him.

Tom Lau and Christ Heit have returned from a trip to the Pacific coast.

The jury in the Baltimore and Ohio damage case is deliberating on a verdict.

A. J. Stainer, who keeps a shop on Superior street, had a foot mashed yesterday.

O. F. Crall, of Ashland, Ohio, is visiting his niece, Miss Clara J. Theime, of Jackson street.

Sam Oppenhammer, late of the B. & O cigar firm, but now in business at Dayton, Ohio, is in the city.

The democratic county central committee will meet to-morrow afternoon at the circuit court.

Charles Armstrong, a big Pittsburg brakeman, had an arm crushed at Lima, yesterday. He was brought to his home here.

HORRIBLE DEATH.

A Distillery Superintendent Falls Into a Slop Vat and is Scalded to Death.

CINCINNATI, March 9.—Charles F. Bloebaum, the slop superintendent at Maddux, Hobart & Co.'s distillery, was found dead this morning in a slop vat, half filled with hot slop. He had lost his footing and fell into the scalding contents. The vat was uncovered. It was his own negligence.

THANKS TO SENATOR BLACKBURN.

Voted by a Philadelphia Post of the Grand Army for His Reply to Ingalls.

PHILADELPHIA, March 9.—The Gen. Robert Patterson post No. 275, G. A. R., met last evening at its headquarters, Broad and Ellsworth streets, when the following preamble and resolution, offered by Past Commander D. B. McCready, were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, A bill is pending in the United States senate, called the dependent pension bill, and though this post feels thankful to a grateful country for its remembrance of the service of her soldiers, yet we learn with regret that the memory of loyal and brave veterans have been publicly insulted in the national congress in order to advance the measure in question; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the thanks of this post are tendered to Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, for so ably defending the memory of those tried and true patriots, Generals George B. McClellan and Winfield S. Hancock.

It was ordered that a copy of the above be sent to Senator Blackburn.

CONGRESS.

Discussing the Resolution in Reference to the Burlington Strike.

WASHINGTON, March 9,—For over an hour to-day the house committee on commerce discussed the White resolution looking to a congressional inquiry into the strike on the Burlington road, but a point of action was not reached and the matter went over until next week.

MRS. GARFIELD'S RETURN.

A Rumor that She is Soon to be Married.

NEW YORK, March 9.—The arrival from Europe to-day of Mrs. James A. Garfield and her daughter has aroused the latent rumor of Miss Mollie's engagement to J. Stanley Brown, once her father's secretary. Reports go further and say that the marriage of Mrs. Garfield to a wealthy land owner of Cleveland is by no means an uncertainty. The land owner was, previous to her marriage, an ardent admirer of Mrs. Garfield, and as soon after the death of her husband as the rules of propriety would permit, he wooed, and, it is said, won the fair widow. She, it is said, made the journey across the ocean partially for the purpose of purchasing a trousseau and partially to relieve Mollie of any embarrassment. It is her intention to return to London in two or three months, and whether it will be as Mrs. Somebody Else time will show.

Bobby Caruthers Gets Married.

CHICAGO, March 7—Bobby Caruthers, Brooklyn's crack baseball pitcher, for whose release a bigger price was paid than for Mike Kelley's, was married to Miss Minnie Danks, of this city. She is the daughter of W. N. Danks, an internal revenue inspector, and is a bright and pretty girl. They left for Brooklyn immediately after the wedding.

Money is needed badly to complete the new Y. M. C. A. building, and it is to be seriously hoped that all may feel interested enough in this grand work to give liberally of their means. During the present week a number have responded, and we know others will do likewise, Now is the crisis. It will take $2,000 to complete and furnish the building, and we hope the work will not stop for want of means.

Some of our most prominent citizens have been cured of rheumatism of years standing by that wonderful pain banisher, Salvation Oil. Sold by all druggists for twenty-five cents a bottle.

DEATH BY FIRE!

Two of the Inmates of a County Poor House are Burned to Death in a Conflagration.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 9.—One of the out-buildings connected with the Williamson county poor house caught fire yesterday and the flames spread so rapidly that Wm. Johnson and Dora Shannon (colored inmates) were burned to death. It is supposed that Johnson, who was crazy, set the building on fire.

CAIRO, Ill., March 9.—A fire at Harrisburg, Saline county, last night, destroyed sixteen houses, including one jewelry store, drug store, two restaurants, millinery store, grocery, hardware store, two warehouses, clothing store and the bank of Harrisburg. The total loss was about $74,000; insurance; $14,000.

ASLEEP AND AFIRE.

Frightful Fate of a Young Colored Woman and a Child at Georgetown, Ohio.

GEORGETOWN, O., March 9.—A horrible tragedy occurred here. Katie Banks is a young colored woman living at the house of Mandy Johnson, another colored woman. The Johnson woman went out to do a day's work, leaving the Banks girl in the house to care for the baby. The girl fell asleep while sitting in a chair before the fire and she awakened to find her clothing in flames. The cradle containing the baby was also on fire.

The frightened girl could not escape from the room, the door being locked, and in her agony she threw herself on the bed in a vain effort to smother the blaze. A neighbor, hearing her cries for help and seeing smoke issuing from the house, forced the door. The Banks girl rose from the bed, staggered a few feet and fell. She presented a horrible sight Her clothing was entirely burned from her body, leaving only a narrow waist-band about her. Her hair was burned off her head, and at the slightest tough the skin would peel from her body. She is still lingering in terrible agony, but will undoubtedly die. The baby was also badly burned, and will probably die.

Murder and Suicide.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., March 10.—Louis Richter, a wealthy farmer residing seven miles from this city, shot and killed Louisa Schmidt, his cousin, at 5 o'clock last evening, and then succeeded in suiciding. He was in love with the girl and she refused to marry him.

DR. WHITE CLOUD.

His Pleasing Entertainments and Instructive Lectures at the Princess.

Since Dr. White Cloud opened his lectures and entertainments, Wednesday night last, at the Princess rink, that resort is a center of attraction.

The vast hall is a picture of frontier life. His company of comedians give splended entertainments nightly and features of gallantry are everywhere seen.

Dr. White Cloud himself is a most gentlemanly and entertaining man and a most interesting conversationalist. He was born in Texas, and is familiar with the whole of the vast territory west of the Missouri. He speaks eleven languages, including several Indian dialects.

His people are equally interesting, and the Warm Spring Indians with him have become historical through their connection with the capture of Captain Jack and his Modocs in the lava beds. The cowboys are plainsmen of wide experience and one of them, Montana Frank, has the reputation of being one of the most daring riders of the country. Dr. White Cloud freely offers to wager that he can ride any horse that can be produced, and has one hundred dollars which he will present to the owner of the horse that throws him. The others are good specimens of cowboys and have all taken part in the rough, active life of the frontier. They can shoot, throw a lasso, or straddle a bucking broncho, and they give, with other attractions, a most interesting exhibition. Last evening White Cloud fixed a nominal admission in order to avoid the rush and confusion of the evening before. He is introducing a valuable Indian remedy, and will remain in Fort Wayne for a month. It is safe to say that every man, woman and child in the city will see his show at least once before he leaves.

E. A. K. HACKETT, Editor and Proprietor.

FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1888.

CONGRESS is now taking a hand at the trusts. Let the good work proceed.

WHO ever heard of a country being ruined by the abolition of exorbitant and needless taxes?

AN early state convention betrays confidence and the certainty of a glorious democratic victory in November.

SENATOR INGALLS must be excused. His mind has not been right since his intellectual encounter with Miss Susan B. Anthony. His criticism of the patriotism of General Hancock and General McClelland is, therefore, not surprising.

THE democratic state committee met at Indianapolis yesterday. Mr. E. P. Richardson was chosen chairman of the state committee, vice Hon. J. H. Rice, who resigned. The date for the state convention was fixed for April 26.

THE New York state senate committee have instructed the attorney general to institue proceedings for the dissolution and prosecution of trust. The committee insists that all such combinations are inimical to the public welfare, as leading to the "annihilation of competition" and the arbitrary fixing of prices.

IT is announced that Chauncey M. Depew, president of the New York Central road, was on his way to Chicago, with Mr. Vanderbilt and other railway magnates, night before last, and they will take a hand in the settlement of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy strike. The statement will hardly bear investigation.

THE December report of the United States commissioner of agriculture gives Indiana the proud credit of producing the greatest amount of wheat of any state in the union in 1887. The figures of the yield, together with those of the production in the states approaching nearest to that of Indiana are as follows: Indiana, 2,802,083 acres; 37,828,000 bushels. Illinois, 2,425,092 acres; 36,861,000 bushels. Minnesota, 3,129,208 acres; 36,299,000 bushels. Ohio, 2,740,087 acres; 35,895,000 bushels.

THE Indianapolis Sentinel observes that "Captain J. H Rohan, of Fort Wayne, a veteran soldier and leader of the labor element in that city, writes a column letter to the Fort Wayne SENTINEL, announcing his determination to act with the democratic party in the approaching campaign. Captain Rohan has a large following among the old soldiers and workingmen of Allen county. His decision to affiliate with the democratic party was induced by President Cleveland's recent tariff message."

WHEN an Austrian Emperor is to be buried, his body is carried by the shortest way from the Burg, the imperial palace, to the crypt of the Capuchins. When the master of the ceremonies has arrived with the imperial corpse, he knocks with his staff on the closed door and demands admission. "Who is there?" asks the guardian from within, but without opening the door. "His majesty, the most high and mighty Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary," etc. The voice from within replies; "I know no such man." The master of the ceremonies knocks a second time. "Who is there?" the guardian again asks. "The Emperor of Austria." "I do not know him," says the guardian. The master of the ceremonies knocks a third time, and is again asked: "Who is there?" "Our brother, Francis," answers the imperial official. At this humble confession of the simple humanity of the dead Cæsar the bolts are immediately withdrawn and the corpse is admitted.

NEW RAILROADS.

Prospects of a Few Lines Running Into Fort Wayne.

Mayor Day, of Huntington, received this letter the other day:

CINCINNATI, March 5, 1888.

Hon. S. F. Day, Huntington, Ind.:

DEAR SIR:—I am more than ever satisfied that the line of railroad projected from Huntington to Versailles will be a very prosperous line. Leaving the Chicago and Atlantic at your city, thence to Bluffton, thence following the Wabash valley to Geneva, thence to Fort Recovery, in Mercer county, Ohio, thence to Versailles, in Darke county, Ohio, to a connection with the Dayton, Fort Wayne and Chicago, making a distance to build of about sixty five miles.

The Dayton, Fort Wayne and Chicago, as you know, is the direct line via Dayton to the Jackson county coal fields and the Hanging Rock iron region. At Dayton it runs into the union depot, thus giving choice of lines to Cincinnati.

There is nothing quite certain that there will be a line to Decatur and Fort Wayne from Celina, if the Huntington and Bluffton road is not built.

The proposed extension of the Atlantic and Mississippi road, from St. Louis to Cleveland via Fort Wayne, is again prominently talked of. THE SENTINEL gave an outline of this project a month ago and now Hon. R. C. Bell has advices that a committee is coming to Fort Wayne in the interest of the new line, with every certainty of its being built.

ECHOES OF THE RAIL.

Caught Up on a Dull Day and During a Flying Trip Around the Route.

The railroads show good earnings for last year.

The Kerr Murray works will pay off their employes to-morrow.

H. C. Boughton, trainmaster of the Wabash, was in the city yesterday.

The Bass works shipped two boilers and stacks to Chicago this morning.

The Berghoff brewery commenced operations at their new establishment yesterday.

John W. Trainor, formerly of the organ factory, is now located at Woodstock, Canada.

Michael Maloney is the faithful watchman at the main entrance gate to the Pittsburg works.

The Pittsburg car shops are now only turning out three cars a day and employ but 110 men.

The discharged Pittsburg boys are seeking other employment and some of them are securing situations.

Allen McQuarrie, recently of the organ factory, left for his home at Pittsburg last night. He does not return.

R. B. Rossington, the freight agent of the Pittsburg, distributed $10,000 among the recently discharged employes yesterday.

The moulding rooms of the Bass foundry were running as usual again this morning. The men had a full holiday yesterday.

A number of cars of lumber were standing on the Pittsburg and Wabash tracks this morning. The lumber shipments are heavy.

The Olds wagon works are receiving orders for their celebrated wagons from all parts of the west and will do an immense business this year.

L. J. Bourie has commenced taking an inventory of stock and material in the Pittsburg car shops. This he is compelled to do every month.

There is an impression among a great many that the Pittsburg shops will soon resume their old time activity. It is to be hoped that such will be the case.

The deadwood of one of the freight cars on the Pittsburg was broken this morning near the Hanna street crossing by another loaded car bumping into it.

The great Bass works will pay off their 1,100 employes to-morrow and Saturday evening, promises to be a busy one among the merchants of our city.

A movement is on foot to open up Lafayette street across the Nickel Plate track, and to construct a bridge over the river where it intersects that thoroughfare.

The Vanderbilt-Depew party made the trip from this city to Jackson, Mich., yesterday in two hours and thirty-three minutes, a distance of 100 miles.

The Jenney Electric Light company will place their matchless light on the streets of Monticelli, Mich. The Jenney has a name and a fame that is unsurpassed.

Jake Siebold says that William Palmer, of the Bass blacksmith shops, was sick yesterday as a result of eating too many watermelons last summer. Guess Jake ought to know.

Charles A Currier, the operator at the Western Union, has carried off the first prize for solving an advertised puzzle. Charley is a genius and succeeds in about everything he undertakes to do.

The discharged employes of the Pittsburg shops only received the pay for last month yesterday. The pay for the number of days they worked this month was received this afternoon from Freight Agent R. B. Rossington.

The chairman of the grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, of both the Pittsburg and Nickel Plate roads, were summoned to Chicago yesterday by Chief Arthur. They responded to the call by taking the first train.

A. S. Work, superintendent of engineers and firemen on the Nickel Plate, is in the city. Mr. Work is making a close inspection of all locomotive engines on the entire line. He is a very sociable gentleman, and is held in the highest esteem by the employes.

O. L. Perry, manager of the Western Union, says: "If I owned a newspaper every one of my reporters should have a bicycle with which to make their daily rounds." Our railroad reporter could go a skimming on one, you bet, or break his neck in the attempt.

The switching of cars at the Lafayette street crossing this morning blockaded the streets and delayed travel and pedestrians for half an hour. Such carelessness as this on the part of the men who handle the trains is inexcusable and uncalled for and they should be prosecuted for it. Some of them will hear something drop if it is repeated again.

Yesterday a veteran engineer, when asked, "Do you think the strike will extend to the Pennsylvania lines?" said: "Why should it? What do we want to strike for? It has only been a short time since the company advanced our wages until the aggregate sum was over a quarter million dollars, and it would seem hardly right to break with them. I am in sympathy with the strikers, as men who have families to support, and I am ready to go down in my pocket to give them aid, but I won't leave my engine, and I do not believe that there is an engineer on the Pennsylvania lines who will be so ungrateful as to leave his engine without cause."

The extraordinary popularity of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the natural result of its use by all classes of people for over thirty years. It has proven itself the very best specific for colds, coughs and pulmonary complaints.

THE BROTHERHOOD

Of Locomotive Engineers---A Short History of the Organization.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers is one of the oldest and strongest guilds in the country, and it has long enjoyed the reputation of being also one of the most conservative. Its motto is "Sobriety, Truth, Justice and Morality" and in its twenty-five years of existence it has been remarkable for its policy of discountenancing strikes. It is over ten years since the brotherhood has countenanced a strike, and indeed there is a provision in its consititution against striking until all other means of adjusting the grievances of its members have been exhausted. The Brotherhood was organized in 1863, and in the intervening years has had but three grand chiefs. The first was a man named Mr. Mudge, the second Charles G. Wilson and the third P. M. Arthur. It now includes over four hundred local divisions and has a membership of over twenty-six thousand. The engines of nearly every important railroad in the country are manned by its members.

Mr. Arthur was elected grand chief in 1876, and has filled the office continuously up to the present time. Under his administration the Brotherhood men have had only one strike, that against the Boston and Maine Railroad company in 1887.

Mr. Arthur is between fifty and sixty years old. He was for many years an engineers on the New York Central road.

At the time of the brakemen's strike in 1877, out of which grew the Pittsburg and other riots, strenuous efforts were made to get the Brotherhood men on the Pennsylvania and New York Central and Hudson River railroads system to strike, but they firmly refused. So gratified was the late William H. Vanderbilt at the Brotherhood's course in this matter that he sent his check for $100,000 to the local head of the order to be divided among the members employed on the New York Central and Hudson River system. Another persistent effort to get the Brotherhood to quit their posts was made during the great strike on the Texas Pacific and the Missouri Pacific systems early in 1886. That strike was ordered by the Knights of Labor, and in consequence of their failure to induce the Brotherhood men to join them they have not since entertained the friendliest feelings for the latter organization.

Captain Bogardus Retires.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Capt. A. H. Bogardus, of Elkhart, Ind., the champion wing shot of the world, visited the Associated Press office and said he will not again compete for championship honors. Advancing years and domestic affliction are the moving causes. For seventeen years the captain has been champion of America, and since 1875 champion of the world. It was on May 25, 1871, that he shot his first match at Fleetwood Park this city. Since then he has twice visited England. In sixteen matches shot there he was successful in all but one, and this defeat was owing to an injudicious charge of powder at a critical juncture. He says future championship matches must be made by younger men.

BROKEN BRAKES.

Just the other day a brave engineer, whose train ran away, dashing to destruction like a flash, was seen desperately wrenching off the cap of the steam chamber, in the hope of wasting the power thereby checking the speed. The brakes were useless, and his heroic efforts came too late. The engine leaped the track, overturned, and he was scalded to death by the very means he had resorted to to save life. He lingered a few hours, but a glance disclosed that there was no hope and there was no remedy to cure. Violent scalds or burns are in their nature incurable, but there are thousands of minor casualties of the kind occuring hourly in every house or large manufactory for which there is a remedy, soothing, sure and prompt, of which the following are proofs: Mr. Michael Higgins, Belcher & Taylor Agricultural Tool Co., Chicopee Falls, Mass., May 4, 1887, writes: "This company has used St. Jacobs Oil for years for their men for burns, cuts and bruises, and we know of nothing that compares with it." Mr. G. Oehrle, Lawrence, Kan., April 16, 1887, writes: "A lamp exploded in my office and in trying to put it out, I cut and burned my hand very badly with glass. St. Jacobs cured me." Mr. J. W. Mevis, 28 Rock street, Lowell, Mass, says; "For burns and chapped hands I know St. Jacobs Oil to be excellent." Mr. A. Schulte, Cleveland, Ohio, February 5, 1887: "We consider St. Jacobs Oil a very valuable remedy for burns." Mr. A. Maskey, Wexford, Pa., writes February 7, 1887: "I have used St. Jacobs Oil for years and know it to be the best for burns." Mr. J. W. Ames, Fairmont, Neb., February 7, 1887, says: "We find it just as efficacious for burns as for bites." Mr. W. A. Schroeder, Gilbertville, Ia., February 11, 1887: "I have used it for burns and can say it does its work as recommended." Of course, in violent burns and scalds, and the treatment of raw surfaces, the directions accompanying each bottle must be strictly followed. And if followed strictly, the soothing and curing influence of the remedy is beyond comparison. The cure is perfect, and a clear, smooth surface the result.

SOME DOCTORS

honestly admit that they can't cure Rheumatism and Neuralgia. Others say they can but—don't. Athlophoros says nothing but—cures. That's the secret of its success. Years of trial have proved it to be a quick, safe, sure cure.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 3, 1887

In my own family Athlophoros was used as a last resort, the user having suffered from rheumatism for years and having been treated for the disease by different physicians in this State and Massachusetts without even temporary relief. Upon my recommendation scores of people have used this remedy with the same results claimed for it. C. H. WILSON.

Office hours: 9 to 12 a. m. 1:30 to 4 p. m.

That's So

Relief is certain for the despondent feelings of the dyspeptic, the constipated habit of the sedentary, the headaches of the nervous and bilious, by the simple use of Simmons Liver Regulator,—easy to take, not nauseating or disgusting, not more bitter than a glass of beer and far more grateful. It is no intoxicating beverage, but it tones up the system, settles the stomach, assists digestion, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the Liver. Take it once and and you will discard all other medicines.

"I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility, but never have found anything to benefit me to the extent that Simmons Liver Regulator has. I would advise all who are similarly affected to give it a trial as it seems the only thing that never fails to relieve."—P. M. JANNEY, Minneapolis, Minn.

The certainty with which this remedy acts has astonished the Medical Profession and secured for itself unbounded praise. Its virtues consist in being so gentle a cathartic, tonic and alterative, that in its operation it does not interrupt the usual duties of life, but acts so naturally that the system is not upset or afterwards constipated. It attacks all bilious disorders and sluggishness of the Liver; is harmless, and can be taken at any time without fear of injury.

"I have been a user of Simmons Liver Regulator for years, having made it my only family medicine. It is a sure, good and reliable medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it."—Rev. JAS. M. ROLLINS, Pastor M. E. Church, Fairfield, Va.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. ALWAYS ASK FOR DR. PIERCE'S PELLETS, OR LITTLE SUGAR-COATED PILLS.

Being entirely vegetable, they operate without disturbance to the system, diet, or occupation. Put up in glass vials, hermetically sealed. Always fresh and reliable. As a laxative, alterative, or purgative, these little Pellets give the most perfect satisfaction.

SICK HEADACHE,

Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may truthfully be said that their action upon the system is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative influence. Sold by druggists, 25 cents a vial. Manufactured at the Chemical Laboratory of WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and fetid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache.

Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 2902 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."

General Use of Irrigation.

There was a curious message sent by the governor of Nebraska to the governor of Colorado, protesting against taking any more water from the South Platte river in Colorado, because it was drying up the Platte river in Nebraska. It was the first message of the kind, I think, ever sent in the west, but it will not be the last one. It shows that the water in the great rivers will one day be in contest, and their distribution on the lands along their banks become a subject of interstate legislation. The day will come when from irrigation the volume of water in the great Missouri and Mississippi will be materially decreased and when one may at certain seasons of the year cross over dry shod at the mouth of streams where steamers now float, as at the mouth of the Yellowstone in Montana.

Nor will the system of irrigation be confined to the west, for it will spread eastward, and before many years be brought into general use. When I think of my old father's farm in Pennsylvania and our dread of drought it makes me half angry at our stupidity. Through this farm ran a fine stream of water and we saw the crops die for want of water on its very banks. Had we had sense enough to put a dam in the creek at the top of the farm we could have thrown out its waters on the land and defied the drought. But no one thought of it, or rather we did not know anything about irrigation. Such a thing could not occur there again with me as the loss of the crop for want of water, and I doubt if it will be long until even the dullest of our farmers come to understand the advantages of irrigation and how to distribute water from the adjacent streams upon their lands.—Gen. James S. Brisbin in New York Tribune.

Naval Station in the West Indies.

Professor Stephen G. Williams is of the opinion that the United States should establish a naval station in the West Indies. The United States does not own a foot of ground in the whole stretch of country between Cape Horn and Florida, and in case of war would be at great disadvantage. Professor Williams, after careful observation, has picked out the West Indies as the most suitable place for the station. Cuba would be too great a load to shoulder, and Hayti is rejected, chiefly because of its size and the ungovernable character of its inhabitants. But there is an island, Professor Williams thinks, which must have been intended for the United States to use for naval reserve purposes. That is St. Thomas.

St. Thomas could not probably be purchased from Denmark without taking also the islands of Santa Cruz and St. Johns. The whole would cost about $3,000,000. The population of the group is about 35,000. In case of a canal being completed, connecting the Atlantic and Pacific, the value of St. Thomas would be increased. England has Jamaica, and France and Spain both have commanding situations. With St. Thomas in its possession, the United States, Professor Williams thinks, would be on an equal footing with the other powers. As Denmark is supposed to be somewhat in need of money, and desirous of selling its West Indian possessions, it is suggested that the United States should step to the front and not let the golden opportunity slip by.—Demorest's Monthly.

Washington's Log Cabin.

Most biographers and historians in their lives of Washington fail to mention an interesting relic of his youth, which might also be called a landmark in America's history. It is only a common log cabin which Washington, at 16 years of age, and George William Fairfax built and occupied while surveying that part of Shenandoah valley now embraced in Clark county.

At that time the land upon which she building stood belonged to Lord Halifax, but was afterward owned by Col. Daniel Morgan, of revolutionary fame, who moved the cabin a few feet from its original site and turned it into a spring house, for which purpose it is still used. Irving described it as a "kind of lodge in the wilderness," and says: "It was situated not far from the Shenandoah, and about twelve miles from the site of the present town of Winchester." The house today looks pretty much as it must have looked then, although, from time to time, as the lower logs have decayed they have been replaced by new ones; yet it is virtually just as Washington left it, except that it is now surrounded by cultivated fields, a younger generation, and more hallowed memories.—Washington Post.

Future of the Colored Race.

Care comes with competence. People who are troubled about to-morrow are more thoughtful to-day. A race with only animal pleasures and instincts increase like animals under favorable conditions as to climate. Fecundity and thought are antagonistic. Hence "a poor man for children," not because he is poor in pocket, but in brains. The Irish peasantry have almost run the Yankees out of New England. They have from ten to fifteen children. The New England rule is two. The black population advances in numbers like a glacier advances, slowly and steadily, and no temporary device will stop it. When the negros become as anxious to provide for the future as the whites their crania will be larger and longer, but their families smaller. No microbe will destroy them, as it does the Australian rabbits. The only plan is to dose them liberally with cook books.—Chicago Times.

A Story of the War.

Maj. Andrew B. Wells, who rode in the famous charge of the Eighth Pennsylvania cavalry at Chancellorsville, received a note, while in Virginia during the war, from a Confederate maiden, asking him to do her some slight service. The gallant major rode to her house, outside the Union lines, and was captured by the enemy. He was sent to Libby prison, and narrowly escaped hanging. For a quarter of a century he cherished a grudge against that fair southern girl, who, as he thought, had lured him into danger. A few days ago he learned her address and wrote to her. In reply to his letter she proved her innocence of all thought of treachery, and told of her endeavors to save him from hanging.—San Francisco Argonaut.

A Word About the Squash.

The squash is one of our tender annuals, and should not be planted until all danger of frost is past. Again, the seed itself is liable to rot in damp, cool weather. Fine plaster is about as good an article as has yet been found for driving away bugs. The crop must be gathered before it is nipped in frost or it will not keep well. A dozen hills of the summer kinds will be enough, but of the fall or winter sorts, five or six rows should be planted.

Altogether, 1,022 novels, of which 625 were reprints of English works, were published in the United States last year.

Democracy Sets the Pace.

The selection of St. Louis as the place of meeting for the Democratic national convention will meet with general approval. It is always good policy to begin a political campaign in a political stronghold of the party. St. Louis and the state of Missouri are joined to the Democracy by bands of steel, and will give the nominee an appropriate send off.—Philadelphia Record.

A Slogan of Triumph.

The action of the national committee is a message to the Democracy of the nation which will strengthen their confidence, arouse their enthusiasm and inspire them with an energy and resolution that will render them invincible in the campaign. By the same token it will demoralize and dishearten the opposition.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

The First in the Field.

The national committee has done a wise thing in naming an earlier day for the Democratic convention than the date of the Republican convention. To be first in the field is everything when an aggressive fight for a good cause is the requisite of victory, and this is certainly the necessity in the coming contest.—Richmond Times.

More of an Undertaking.

The St. Louis convention will have a bigger job on its hands this year than the one that is to be held in Chicago. The former will have to name a president, while the latter will simply have to choose a historian-at-large for its party.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

On the Run.

From all sources comes approval of the early date fixed for the Democratic national convention. The party is strong enough to show its hand first. The other side is all broken up. The Republicans are on the run. The thing to do is keep them there.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

An Early Aggressive Campaign.

We congratulate the Democratic national committee upon the result of its meeting at Washington. In the selection of St. Louis it has fixed the convention at a central point, in a city affording ample accommodations and loyal to Democratic purposes.—Manchester Union.

The Date Shows Good Judgment.

The national Democratic committee did a wise thing in reconsidering the determination of the day before and fixing the date of the convention June 5.—Boston Post.

A Fortunate Selection.

The selection of St. Louis as the place for the holding of the Democratic national convention is a fortunate one for the Democracy.—Milwaukee Journal.

Victory in '76, Victory in '88.

St. Louis well received the national Democratic convention in 1876 and has claims to the same distinction in 1888.—Buffalo Courier.

The Next President.

The next president is to be nominated in St. Louis. This is satisfaction enough for one day.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Magnetism All Gone.

Those who saw Mr. James G. Blaine when he was in London last year at the jubilee, will not be surprised at his letter from Florence declining to be put in nomination as Republican candidate for the American presidency. Mr. Blaine looked as if he were utterly exhausted. His energy and his magnetic powers seemed to have evaporated.—Pall Mall Gazette.

The True Inwardness of Things.

The "anti-saloon Republican convention" will be held in New York in April. It will be largely composed of delegates to the saloon Republican convention in Chicago.—St. Louis Republican.

A Sign of the Times.

There is an old superstition that a year with three eights in it is a lucky year.—Atlanta Constitution.

Peculiar in medicinal merit and wonderful cures—Hood's Sarsaparilla. Now is the time to take it, for now it will do the most good.

Colored Nabobs.

When the New York papers referred to N. W. Cuney as being the richest colored man in Texas, they had evidently not heard of the Lincoln family, now residing at Dallas, six children in all, who have come into possession of $48,000,000, giving them the snug little fortune of $8,000,000 apiece. The party in Galveston bears the illustrious cognomen of Abraham Lincoln. When asked if he had matured any plans for investing this vast estate, he replied that they had decided to invest it all in United States bonds. "The interest on the bonds," said he, "will give us more than enough to live on, with a good margin for speculation without touching the principal. It is also a safe investment, and carries with it an immunity from taxation."

When asked by what means such enormous wealth had been acquired by his family, he replied that it was inherited from his grandmother, Fanny Ellis, who resided at Dallas, where she died a year or two ago. Fanny Ellis was a Mexican woman, and some forty years ago her husband acquired immense wealth in speculation in Mexican mining claims, which was deposited in the Bank of England. Preceding the late civil war they bought and sold slaves, and among one of their purchases from a slave-trader was the father of the six children who have recently gone in possession of the $48,000,000. The father married the daughter of his mistress, by whom he was set free, and the six children being the direct issue of that marriage, establish the claim of direct inheritance. Some litigation was necessary in establishing their claim, and it was only a few days ago that they acquired actual possession of their fabulous inheritance. —Galveston News.

Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in the spring of the year, to purify the blood, invigorate the system, excite the liver to action, and restore healthy tone and vigor to the whole physical mechanism. Remember that quality, not quantity, constitutes the value of medicine.

Persian Mosques.

The interior of a Persian Mosque is always the same. There is the courtyard; it may be small, it may be paved with stone, brick, or tile work, it is always surrounded by a wall, which may be high or low. Invariably there is a vessel of drinking water, and a hauz or tank for performing the necessary ablutions. The drinking water receptacle may be a crock or stone vessel resembling a font, or a similar receptacle in metal or brass, copper, silver, or even gold. The mosque itself may be a mere mud hovel; but even in these cases there is usually some slight attempt at a domed roof. It may be of plain brick or stone—which is, however, very rarely employed in Persia in the building of mosques—or it may be built of brick covered inside and out with tile work, such as cannot be imagined for elegance and beauty by the untraveled European. A good Persian Mosque appears like a vast edifice of blue and white porcelain. Sometimes it is of a light blue, sometimes of a deep indigo. The taste of these decorations is undeniable. Inscriptions and texts, the letters of which are three, four, and even six feet long, and may be read for miles are not uncommon. But a few years ago mosques and shrines were frequently despoiled of their choicest treasures—magnificent tiles covered with inscription in high relief, in blue, white, and gold, the letters of which were frequently decorated with a peculiar glaze (now a lost art in Persia) which made the inscriptions give forth a metallic luster and caused them, when the sun's rays fell upon them, to resemble masses of burnished gold. If the exterior of these mosques are magnificent, still more beautiful are the interiors; the walls and arches, the columns and floors, and the vast domes are covered with exquisitely executed work.

Opinion of a Leading Editor.

Almost all the diseases that afflict us from infancy to old age have their origin in a disordered liver. A really good liver medicine is the most important in the whole range of pharmacy. We believe Simmons Liver Regulator to be the best among them all. We pin our faith upon the Regulator, and if we could persuade every reader who is in ill health to buy it, we would willingly vouch for the benefit each would receive.—Ed. Cincinnati Gazette.

THE people of Sonoma have a new way of catching fish. They go down to the embarkadero at high tide and get into the creek, and by beating the water with long sticks and making a terrible noise they scare the fish back, and keep them back until the tide runs out; then the fish are left in the holes, and the men and boys attack them with spears, pitchforks, and clubs until they obtain all they want. A friend of ours caught a fine lot of carp there the other day, some of them weighing as much as three pounds each. These carp escaped from Poppe's fish pond, near Glen Ellen, some years ago, and have multiplied wonderfully. They now seem to enjoy the salt water better than the fresh.

To Assist Nature

In restoring diseased or wasted tissue is all that any medicine can do. In pulmonary affections, such as Colds, Bronchitis, and Consumption, the mucous membrane first becomes inflamed, then accumulations form in the air-cells of the lungs, followed by tubercles, and, finally, destruction of the tissue. It is plain, therefore, that, until the hacking cough is relieved, the bronchial tubes can have no opportunity to heal. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

the inflamed membrane, arrests the wasting process, and leaves no injurious results. This is why it is more highly esteemed than any other pulmonary specific.

L. D. Bixby, of Bartonsville, Vt., writes: "Four years ago I took a severe cold, which was followed by a terrible cough. I was very sick, and confined to my bed about four months. My physician finally said I was in consumption, and that he could not help me. One of my neighbors advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and before I had taken half a bottle was able to go out. By the time I had finished the bottle I was well, and have remained so ever since."

Alonzo P. Daggett, of Smyrna Mills, Me., writes: "Six years ago, I was a traveling salesman, and at that time was suffering with

Lung Trouble.

For months I was unable to rest nights. I could seldom lie down, had frequent choking spells, and was often compelled to seek the open air for relief. I was induced to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which helped me. Its continued use has entirely cured me, and, I believe, saved my life."

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Knight, who appear at the Opera house to-night, are making preparations for a trip around the world. They will have "Rudolph" and several other plays in their repertoire. They will go to Australia about the last of May and expect to be abroad two years.

The Huntington Democrat remarks: "Capt. J. H. Rohan, of Fort Wayne, an old soldier and a man prominent in the Knights of Labor organination in the state, has an open letter in the Sentinel, of that city, of Saturday last, in which he says that no possible good can come from a labor ticket this year; that this being true he can not belong to the republican party because of the present and past policy of that party, and that he shall vote and act with the democratic party because of its principles and its present honorable administration of affairs."

The Pennsylvania company has just decided to adopt openly the system of milling in transit rates which have been in practice on other eastern roads to a limited extent. It applies only to grain which by the new order of things may be shipped from one station to another eastward thereof at the regular rate, with the privilege of having it ground at an intermediate point. The conditions are that the grain must be consigned to a mill doing business on the line of the road, and that the flour must be reshipped within ten days after receipt of grain to Pittsburg or some point east thereof. This step has been taken by the Pennsylvania because the plan has been covertly in operation by its competitors. It will help to build up the milling industries along the Pennsylvania lines.

The firemen on through freight are given 5 cents more per day; on local freight between Crestline and Chicago, the engineers get an increase of 46 cents a day and the firemen a raise of 10 cents. Provision is made for extra time. The schedule, however, does not delight the men and they are not slow to say so.

A TERRIBLE TALE.

Martha Johns, an Insane Woman, Lashed to a Post by Her Husband.

This morning, people came in from Aboit township and filed with the sheriff and clerk application for readmission of Martha Johns to the state insane asylum.

The woman and husband live out in Aboit township in poor circumstances. Mrs. Johns is subject to insane freaks and was at one time an inmate of the state asylum. After her discharge she returned to her home in this county, but her malady recurred. Vexed at this her husband is said to have lashed her to an old-fashioned bed post in their house for days and nights at a time.

Her screams could be heard for miles and at last aroused neighborhood indignation.

Mr Johns is subject to fits and at times is not responsible for his acts.

Commissioners at the Capital Looking After Exhibits.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Mr. R. B. Brown, of the Zanesville Courier, and Gen. W. B. Hamilton, of Athens, two of the commissioners of the Columbus centennial of the settlement of the northwest territory, which opens on the 4th of September, are in Washington, looking after exhibits for their respective departments. Mr. Brown is the commissioner for printing and journalism. He has already secured one of the antiquities in presses, and hopes to be able to practically illustrate the progress of the "art preservative" down to the best machines of the present day. General Hamilton is collecting exhibits in the line of commerce and transportation. Mr. Outhwaite has a resolution pending authorizing loans from the government departments for the Columbus centennial.

THE NEW CHINESE TREATY.

Absolute Prohibition of the Importation of Chinese Laborers.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Secretary Bayard and the Chinese ministry are expected to sign the new Chinese treaty in a few days and it will then go to the senate. It is an absolute prohibition of the importation of Chinese laborers. It allows any Chinaman who has made this country his home and has acquired $1,000 worth of property to visit China and return. This concession is expected to meet with the opposition of the Pacific coast senators. It is claimed that the average Chinaman would not hesitate to swear he had $1,000 worth of property, whether he had or not.

MUST WIN OR DIE!

Chief Arthur Says the Brotherhood Must Use Every Honorable Means to Win the Fight.

CHICAGO, March 9.—Arthur has issued a circular in which he says the Brotherhoods of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen are now engaged in a life and death struggle. War has been declared between them and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad. The Brotherhood can not recede from their demands on the wages question and maintain their self-respect or their organization. They must win or die. They can only respect the claims of neutrals, so long as they remain neutral. They must and will exhaust every honorable means to win the fight.

A train of Burlington cars was run in on the Fort Wayne tracks yesterday and delivered to that company to be transported to the east Fort Wayne yardmaster. He endeavored to get the cars switched, but after a half dozen engineers had refused to touch them, he gave it up and the cars were left where the Burlington switch engine first switched them.

Another train of Burlington cars was run into the Michigan Central yards and treated the same way. The belt line engineers positively refuse to haul Burlington freight.

CHICAGO, March 9.—The Brotherhood yesterday issued a circular to the public, in which they say they are willing to submit to the arbitration of three railroad managers, and that if this strike continues the responsibility is with the Burlington and Quincy. Manager Stone, when asked if he would arbitrate, said, "We have nothing to arbitrate." Rev. Dr. Witherell Withrow, of the Presbyterian church, says the refusal of the railroad to arbitrate, marks that the railway is in the wrong.

"Far over-shadowing in importance," said Chief Arthur, "far above the incident of the Burlington's attempt to seek relief in the courts, is the stand taken by the big Rock Island system. The letter sent by General Manager St. John, of the Rock Island, declaring that he would not inflict a great injury upon the communities depending on his road in an attempt to do the impossible is very significant indeed, and perhaps contains the key to the situation. It is a good, manly letter and carries the Rock Island's pledge of neutrality."

Chief Arthur dismissed as comparatively unimportant the petition filed by the Burlington managers for injunction against him. "If the court enjoins me from doing certain things," said he, "most assuredly I will not do them."

PITTSBURG, March 9.—The most reliable information is that the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy trouble will not extend to the Fort Wayne and Pan Handle lines of the Pennsylvania company. An official said: "The engineers are not fools enough to try and force us to stop receiving Chicago, Burlington and Quincy freight when we are compelled to receive it by law. I do not believe Chief Arthur has for a moment entertained such an idea."

A GENERAL STRIKE NOT CONTEMPLATED.

CHICAGO, March 9.—J. J. O'Brien, who is directly associated with Chief Arthur in the present trouble, and who is chairman of the press committee, said: "There is no imminent danger of a general strike on all the roads, for the reason that neither Mr. Arthur nor those associated with him feel like paralyzing the trade of so great a territory. There is an immense amount of suffering now going on along the lines of the Burlington, at points that have no outlet. Our advices say that in these places the people are suffering for the necessaries of life; that many have been throw out of employment, and that fuel is fast giving out.

It is the opinion of the members of the executive committee now in charge of the strike that the Burlington is inclined to meet them half way in the matters under dispute. It is a fact that the grievance committees are now meeting on all the roads which center in Chicago or connect with eastern lines, and that in some cases there are real grounds for grievance. This is not the case, however, on the Chicago and Northern system, because its engineers and firemen have been conceded all that is just, and fair, and equitable. To order a general strike would be to stagnate the business of the country, to throw tens of thousands out of employment and to cause untold suffering. Before a general strike is ordered, before the grievance committee or even one road shall call upon Chief Arthur to sanction a strike, the question must be given long and careful consideration."

Judgment for Over Twenty Millions.

Judge Gresham, at Indianapolis, yesterday, rendered a supplemental decree in favor of the plaintiff, in the suit of the Central Trust company, of New York, and James Cheney, of Fort Wayne, against the Wabash railway, for the sum of $21,721,619.05, principal and interest upon the debt of $19,132,753.40, adjudged to be due the plaintiff from the defendants on the 8th of January, 1886.

At that time an order of sale was granted by the court, and the property described in the decree was sold, but the amount realized was only $625,000.

GERMANY WEEPS

Over the Death of Emperor William, Which Occurred at 11:15 this Morning.

BERLIN, March 9.—The emperor died at 11:15 this morning.

The eye-witnesses of the scenes at the death of the emperor state that during the last few hours he suffered no pain. Shortly after 8 o'clock the members of the family staying at the palace, the court dignataries, generals and ministers of state, were summoned to the chamber in which the emperor lay dying.

The emperor was in a half reclining position on a camp bedstead. All the members of the royal family took places at his bedside.

The room was crowded. Prince William stood nearest the emperor, and half bending over the couch, he earnestly watched the face of the dying monarch until he expired.

The emperor's remains lie covered with white cloth on the bedstead on which he died in the imperial chamber. The body is surrounded with candles. The expression of the face is extremely peaceful and placid.

The emperor died holding the empress' hand. He had been in a stupor since 3 o'clock. He was delirious for a brief period, at 5 o'clock, during which he has reported to have exclaimed:

"I am a man of peace, but if Russia forces me to war, I shall faithfully side with my ally, Austria."

The members of the royal family left the palace at 2 o'clock.

The emperor will be buried in the Mausoleum, at Charlottenburg.

ANNOUNCING THE EMPEROR'S DEATH.

When the reichstag met to-day Prince Bismarck, with deep emotion, informed the members of the death of the emperor.

He also announced that the new king would assume the title of Frederick II.

When Prince Bismarck entered the reichstag at 12:35 this afternoon he deposited the imperial order, closing the session. The order was the last official document signed by the late emperor. Prince Bismarck informed the reichstag that Emperor Frederick will leave San Remo to-morrow and that he will arrive at Berlin in due course of time.

At a meeting of the lower house of the Prussian diet to-day, Herr Von Putkamer, the vice president of the Prussian ministerial counsell, announced the death of the emperor.

The house received the communication with evident satisfaction, the more so because Von Puttkamer, in announcing the death of Emperor William to the lower house of the diet, had not alluded to the new emperor. This omission had created a painful impression. The reichstag adjourned for an indefinite period.

THE NEW EMPEROR.

SAN REMO, March 9.—The emperor of Germany, (Frederick William), passed a fairly good night. During the early part of the night he was restless, but he slept better afterward.

SAN REMO, March 9.—The crown prince and princess of Germany will leave San Remo immediately for Berlin.

SAN REMO, March 9.—Emperor Frederick II. was greatly disturbed on hearing the news of his fathers death, but is now much more tranquil. He has received hundreds of telegrams of condolence. The new emperor and his wife will leave for Berlin at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

THE FEELING ELSEWHERE.

LONDON, March 9.—A general surprise is expressed that the house of commons did not adjourn in consequence of Emperor William's death.

PARIS, March 9.—The parliamentary chambers will not adjourn on account of the German emperor's death.

VIENNA, March 9.—The reichstag has adjourned because of the death of the German emperor.

PARIS, March 9.—President Carnot has sent a telegram of condolence to Frederick William at San Remo. All the members of the French cabinet called, and inserted their names at the German embassy.

NEW YORK, March 9.—A London dispatch to the Times says: Here in England there is rejoicing that the English princess, who is the best beloved of her whole race, and who made such a splendid and resolute fight against the whole Berlin court ring to keep her husband alive, has triumphed. She will be empress of Germany now, at least for a time, and no German intrigues, not even if given the whole weight of her son's influence, can rob her of her rank, her dower and her share in the crown estates.

LONDON, March 9.—Flags are at half mast generally throughout England on account of the death of Emperor William at 11:15 this morning. Prince Henry, of Battenburg, conveyed a message from the queen to Count Von Hatzfeldt, the German embassador expressing her majesty's sorrow at the emperors death.

LONDON, March 9.—Dispatches from the continent say the Paris and Vienna bourses are firm to-day. Hamburg and Frankfort bourses are closed.

LONDON, March 9.—The queen was dressed in deep black when she took her carriage to exercise in the gardens of Buckingham Palace today. The court has been ordered to wear mourning for a month. All state ceremonies have been cancelled. Prince Wales, Prince Christian and Prince Henry, of Battenberg, who will represent the queen, will attend the emperor's funeral.

HOOSIER DEMOCRATS

The State Central Committee Holds a Council—E. P. Richardson Elected Chairman.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 9.—The meeting of the democratic state central committee yesterday brought a large number of representive democrats here from all parts of the state. E. P. Richardson, of Pike county, was unanimously elected chairman, Rice and Sheerin both positively refusing to serve. Mr. Richardson has served two terms in the state senate, is a wide-awake democrat, and has represented the Second district for a long time on the state central committee.

The date of the state convention was fixed at April 26. The ratio of representation in the convention was fixed at one delegate for each two hundred votes cast for Governor Gray in 1884, and one additional delegate for every fraction over one hundred votes so cast.

Much interest centers in the nomination for governor. Colonel Matson is is here. He said that he was an out-and-out candidate for the nomination of governor, and if he did not get it, it would not be because he had not made an effort. He had received many assurances of support, and thinks his chances are very good. Regarding Mr. Bynum's alleged candidacy, he said he knew nothing, as he had not talked to that gentleman about it.

From another source it was learned that Mr. Bynum has said to several democrats that he will not be a candidate, and the failure of the union labor party to indorse him in some way, at its convention, yesterday, is regarded by some as practically taking him out of the race.

Capt W. R. Myers is making a determined canvass for the nomination, and Green Smith is also doing something in the same line, but the returns thus far are not very encouraging. Congressman Shively is also a candidate, believing that he will be very strong with the labor element. From present indications, dark horses being barred, the fight is between Matson and Myers, with the chances about equally divided.

Regarding the rest of the state ticket, there is a practical concession that the nominees of 1886 will be again selected, with possibly one or two exceptions. Thomas Byrne, of Evansville, is undecided whether to make to make the race for treasurer again, and, as he is now in New York, where he has a good position offered him, his views could not be ascertained to-day.

A significant fact developed is that H. D. McMullen, the candidate for attorney general two years ago, has written a letter to John R. Wilson, saying that he does not want to make the race again, and this fortifies Mr. Wilson's candidacy and makes him formidable.

Andrew M. Sweeney, who was a former candidate for superintendent of public instruction, publishes a card declining to again enter the race.

Charles A. Munson, of Fort Wayne, who was on the ticket for auditor; E. W. Mains, of Bloomington, who was the candidate for secretary, are in the field again, and are now here.

HE CAME HOME TO DIE.

Charles Downer, the Missing Teller, Shoots Himself in a Church.

TROY, N. Y., March 9.—Nearly two weeks ago Chas. Downer, for years a teller in the National bank of Castleton, suddenly disappeared. Rumors were scattered broadcast that Downer's accounts were in a bad shape, but Frank Harder, president of the bank, states that Downer's accounts are all correct and that a balance stands to his credit. Detectives were at once employed to find the missing teller, but in vain.

Yesterday Mrs. Downer received a letter from her husband dated at Springfield, Mass., last Sunday. Mr. Downer stated that he had come to his senses at a hotel in Springfield and did not know how he had come there. In the letter he stated that he had pains in his head, and the postscript to the letter gave signs of a wandering mind, the writer's intellect evidently failing as he wrote.

In the afternoon some parties entered the basement of the Reformed church at Castleton and discovered Downer lying on the floor unconscious, with a pistol, one chamber empty, by his side. He was removed to his home, where he died shortly after without regaining consciousness. How or when he reached Castleton and wandered into the church no one knows. The conductors on the trains he must have ridden on have no recollection of seeing him.

THANKS TO SENATOR BLACKBURN.

Voted by a Philadelphia Post of the Grand Army for His Reply to Ingalls.

PHILADELPHIA, March 9.—The Gen. Robert Patterson post No. 275, G. A. R., met last evening at its headquarters, Broad and Ellsworth streets, when the following preamble and resolution, offered by Past Commander D. B. McCready, were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, A bill is pending in the United States senate, called the dependent pension bill, and though this post feels thankful to a grateful country for its remembrance of the service of her soldiers, yet we learn with regret that the memory of loyal and brave veterans have been publicly insulted in the national congress in order to advance the measure in question; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the thanks of this post are tendered to Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, for so ably defending the memory of those tried and true patriots, Generals George B. McClellan and Winfield S. Hancock.

It was ordered that a copy of the above be sent to Senator Blackburn.

CONGRESS.

Discussing the Resolution in Reference to the Burlington Strike.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—For over an hour to-day the house committee on commerce discussed the White resolution looking to a congressional inquiry into the strike on the Burlington road, but a point of action was not reached and the matter went over until next week.

MRS. GARFIELD'S RETURN.

A Rumor that She is Soon to be Married.

NEW YORK, March 9.—The arrival from Europe to-day of Mrs. James A. Garfield and her daughter has aroused the latent rumor of Miss Mollie's engagement to J. Stanley Brown, once her father's secretary. Reports go further and say that the marriage of Mrs. Garfield to a wealthy land owner of Cleveland is by no means an uncertainty. The land owner was, previous to her marriage, an ardent admirer of Mrs. Garfield, and as soon after the death of her husband as the rules of propriety would permit, he wooed, and, it is said, won the fair widow. She, it is said, made the journey across the ocean partially for the purpose of purchasing a trousseau and partially to relieve Mollie of any embarrassment. It is her intention to return to London in two or three months, and whether it will be as Mrs. Somebody Else time will show.

Bobby Caruthers Gets Married.

CHICAGO, March 7—Bobby Caruthers, Brooklyn's crack baseball pitcher, for whose release a bigger price was paid than for Mike Kelley's, was married to Miss Minnie Danks, of this city. She is the daughter of W. N. Danks, an internal revenue inspector, and is a bright and pretty girl. They left for Brooklyn immediately after the wedding.

Money is needed badly to complete the new Y. M. C. A. building, and it is to be seriously hoped that all may feel interested enough in this grand work to give liberally of their means. During the present week a number have responded, and we know others will do likewise. Now is the crisis. It will take $2,000 to complete and furnish the building, and we hope the work will not stop for want of means.

DEATH BY FIRE!

Two of the Inmates of a County Poor House are Burned to Death in a Conflagration.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 9.—One of the out-buildings connected with the Williamson county poor house caught fire yesterday and the flames spread so rapidly that Wm. Johnson and Dora Shannon (colored inmates) were burned to death. It is supposed that Johnson, who was crazy, set the building on fire.

CAIRO, Ill., March 9.—A fire at Harrisburg, Saline county, last night, destroyed sixteen houses, including one jewelry store, drug store, two restaurants, millinery store, grocery, hardware store, two warehouses, clothing store and the bank of Harrisburg. The total loss was about $74,000; insurance; $14,000.

ASLEEP AND AFIRE.

Frightful Fate of a Young Colored Woman and a Child at Georgetown, Ohio.

GEORGETOWN, O., March 9.—A horrible tragedy occurred here. Katie Banks is a young colored woman living at the house of Mandy Johnson, another colored woman. The Johnson woman went out to do a day's work, leaving the Banks girl in the house to care for the baby. The girl fell asleep while sitting in a chair before the fire and she awakened to find her clothing in flames. The cradle containing the baby was also on fire.

The frightened girl could not escape from the room, the door being locked, and in her agony she threw herself on the bed in a vain effort to smother the blaze. A neighbor, hearing her cries for help and seeing smoke issuing from the house, forced the door. The Banks girl rose from the bed, staggered a few feet and fell. She presented a horrible sight. Her clothing was entirely burned from her body, leaving only a narrow waist-band about her. Her hair was burned off her head, and at the slightest touch the skin would peel from her body. She is still lingering in terrible agony, but will undoubtedly die. The baby was also badly burned, and will probably die.

Murder and Suicide.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., March 10.—Louis Richter, a wealthy farmer residing seven miles from this city, shot and killed Louisa Schmidt, his cousin, at 5 o'clock last evening, and then succeeded in suicidding. He was in love with the girl and she refused to marry him.

DR. WHITE CLOUD.

His Pleasing Entertainments and Instructive Lectures at the Princess.

Since Dr. White Cloud opened his lectures and entertainments, Wednesday night last, at the Princess rink, that resort is a center of attraction.

The vast hall is a picture of frontier life. His company of comedians give splendid entertainments nightly and features of gallantry are everywhere seen.

Dr. White Cloud himself is a most gentlemanly and entertaining man and a most interesting conversationalist. He was born in Texas, and is familiar with the whole of the vast territory west of the Missouri. He speaks eleven languages, including several Indian dialects.

His people are equally interesting, and the Warm Spring Indians with him have become historical through their connection with the capture of Captain Jack and his Modocs in the lava beds. The cowboys are plainsmen of wide experience and one of them, Montana Frank, has the reputation of being one of the most daring riders of the country. Dr. White Cloud freely offers to wager that he can ride any horse that can be produced, and has one hundred dollars which he will present to the owner of the horse that throws him. The others are good specimens of cowboys and have all taken part in the rough, active life of the frontier. They can shoot, throw a lasso, or straddle a bucking broncho, and they give, with other attractions, a most interesting exhibition. Last evening White Cloud fixed a nominal admission in order to avoid the rush and confusion of the evening before. He is introducing a valuable Indian remedy, and will remain in Fort Wayne for a month. It is safe to say that every man, woman and child in the city will see his show at least once before he leaves.

E. A. K. HACKETT, Editor and Proprietor.

FRIDAY, MARCH 9, 1888.

CONGRESS is now taking a hand at the trusts. Let the good work proceed.

WHO ever heard of a country being ruined by the abolition of exorbitant and needless taxes?

AN early state convention betrays confidence and the certainty of a glorious democratic victory in November.

SENATOR INGALLS must be excused. His mind has not been right since his intellectual encounter with Miss Susan B. Anthony. His criticism of the patriotism of General Hancock and General McClelland is, therefore, not surprising.

THE democratic state committee met at Indianapolis yesterday. Mr. E. P. Richardson was chosen chairman of the state committee, vice Hon. J. H. Rice, who resigned. The date for the state convention was fixed for April 26.

THE New York state senate committee have instructed the attorney general to institue proceedings for the dissolution and prosecution of trust. The committee insists that all such combinations are inimical to the public welfare, as leading to the "annihilation of competition" and the arbitrary fixing of prices.

IT is announced that Chauncey M. Depew, president of the New York Central road, was on his way to Chicago, with Mr. Vanderbilt and other railway magnates, night before last, and they will take a hand in the settlement of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy strike. The statement will hardly bear investigation.

THE December report of the United States commissioner of agriculture gives Indiana the proud credit of producing the greatest amount of wheat of any state in the union in 1887. The figures of the yield, together with those of the production in the states approaching nearest to that of Indiana are as follows: Indiana, 2,802,083 acres; 37,828,000 bushels. Illinois, 2,435,092 acres; 35,861,000 bushels. Minnesota, 3,129,208 acres; 35,299,000 bushels. Ohio, 2,740,087 acres; 35,595,000 bushels.

THE Indianapolis Sentinel observes that "Captain J. H Rohan, of Fort Wayne, a veteran soldier and leader of the labor element in that city, writes a column letter to the Fort Wayne SENTINEL, announcing his determination to act with the democratic party in the approaching campaign. Captain Rohan has a large following among the old soldiers and workingmen of Allen county. His decision to affiliate with the democratic party was induced by President Cleveland's recent tariff message."

WHEN an Austrian Emperor is to be buried, his body is carried by the shortest way from the Burg, the imperial palace, to the crypt of the Capuchins. When the master of the ceremonies has arrived with the imperial corpse, he knocks with his staff on the closed door and demands admission. "Who is there?" asks the guardian from within, but without opening the door. "His majesty, the most high and mighty Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary," etc. The voice from within replies; "I know no such man." The master of the ceremonies knocks a second time. "Who is there?" the guardian again asks. "The Emperor of Austria." "I do not know him," says the guardian. The master of the ceremonies knocks a third time, and is again asked: "Who is there?" "Our brother, Francis," answers the imperial official. At this humble confession of the simple humanity of the dead Cæsar the bolts are immediately withdrawn and the corpse is admitted.

NEW RAILROADS.

Prospects of a Few Lines Running Into Fort Wayne.

Mayor Day, of Huntington, received this letter the other day:

CINCINNATI, March 5, 1888.

Hon. S. F. Day, Huntington, Ind.:

DEAR SIR:—I am more than ever satisfied that the line of railroad projected from Huntington to Versailles will be a very prosperous line. Leaving the Chicago and Atlantic at your city, thence to Bluffton, thence following the Wabash valley to Geneva, thence to Fort Recovery, in Mercer county, Ohio, thence to Versailles, in Darke county, Ohio, to a connection with the Dayton, Fort Wayne and Chicago, making a distance to build of about sixty five miles.

The Dayton, Fort Wayne and Chicago, as you know, is the direct line via Dayton to the Jackson county coal fields and the Hanging Rock iron region. At Dayton it runs into the union depot, thus giving choice of lines to Cincinnati.

There is nothing quite certain that there will be a line to Decatur and Fort Wayne from Celina, if the Huntington and Bluffton road is not built.

The proposed extension of the Atlantic and Mississippi road, from St. Louis to Cleveland via Fort Wayne, is again prominently talked of. THE SENTINEL gave an outline of this project a month ago and now Hon. R. C. Bell has advices that a committee is coming to Fort Wayne in the interest of the new line, with every certainty of its being built.

ECHOES OF THE RAIL.

Caught Up on a Dull Day and During a Flying Trip Around the Route.

The railroads show good earnings for last year.

The Kerr Murray works will pay off their employes to-morrow.

H. C. Boughton, trainmaster of the Wabash, was in the city yesterday.

The Bass works shipped two boilers and stacks to Chicago this morning.

The Berghoff brewery commenced operations at their new establishment yesterday.

John W. Trainor, formerly of the organ factory, is now located at Woodstock, Canada.

Michael Maloney is the faithful watchman at the main entrance gate to the Pittsburg works.

The Pittsburg car shops are now only turning out three cars a day and employ but 110 men.

The discharged Pittsburg boys are seeking other employment and some of them are securing situations.

Allen McQuarrie, recently of the organ factory, left for his home at Pittsburg last night. He does not return.

R. B. Rossington, the freight agent of the Pittsburg, distributed $10,000 among the recently discharged employes yesterday.

The moulding rooms of the Bass foundry were running as usual again this morning. The men had a full holiday yesterday.

A number of cars of lumber were standing on the Pittsburg and Wabash tracks this morning. The lumber shipments are heavy.

The Olds wagon works are receiving orders for their celebrated wagons from all parts of the west and will do an immense business this year.

L. J. Bourie has commenced taking an inventory of stock and material in the Pittsburg car shops. This he is compelled to do every month.

There is an impression among a great many that the Pittsburg shops will soon resume their old time activity. It is to be hoped that such will be the case.

The deadwood of one of the freight cars on the Pittsburg was broken this morning near the Hanna street crossing by another loaded car bumping into it.

The great Bass works will pay off their 1,100 employes to-morrow and Saturday evening, promises to be a busy one among the merchants of our city.

A movement is on foot to open up Lafayette street across the Nickel Plate track, and to construct a bridge over the river where it intersects that thoroughfare.

The Vanderbilt-Depew party made the trip from this city to Jackson, Mich., yesterday in two hours and thirty-three minutes, a distance of 100 miles.

The Janney Electric Light company will place their matchless light on the streets of Monticello, Mich. The Janney has a name and a fame that is unsurpassed.

Jake Siebold says that William Palmer, of the Bass blacksmith shops, was sick yesterday as a result of eating too many watermelons last summer. Guess Jake ought to know.

Charles A Currier, the operator at the Western Union, has carried off the first prize for solving an advertised puzzle. Charley is a genius and succeeds in about everything he undertakes to do.

The discharged employes of the Pittsburg shops only received the pay for last month yesterday. The pay for the number of days they worked this month was received this afternoon from Freight Agent R. B. Rossington.

The chairman of the grievance committee of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, of both the Pittsburg and Nickel Plate roads, were summoned to Chicago yesterday by Chief Arthur. They responded to the call by taking the first train.

A. S. Work, superintendent of engineers and firemen on the Nickel Plate, is in the city. Mr. Work is making a close inspection of all locomotive engines on the entire line. He is a very sociable gentleman, and is held in the highest esteem by the employes.

O. L. Perry, manager of the Western Union, says: "If I owned a newspaper every one of my reporters should have a bicycle with which to make their daily rounds." Our railroad reporter could go a skimming on one, you bet, or break his neck in the attempt.

The switching of cars at the Lafayette street crossing this morning blockaded the streets and delayed travel and pedestrians for half an hour. Such carelessness as this on the part of the men who handle the trains is inexcusable and uncalled for and they should be prosecuted for it. Some of them will hear something drop if it is repeated again.

Yesterday a veteran engineer, when asked, "Do you think the strike will extend to the Pennsylvania lines?" said: "Why should it? What do we want to strike for? It has only been a short time since the company advanced our wages until the aggregate sum was over a quarter million dollars, and it would seem hardly right to break with them. I am in sympathy with the strikers, as men who have families to support, and I am ready to go down in my pocket to give them aid, but I won't leave my engine, and I do not believe that there is an engineer on the Pennsylvania lines who will be so ungrateful as to leave his engine without cause."

The extraordinary popularity of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the natural result of its use by all classes of people for over thirty years. It has proven itself the very best specific for colds, coughs and pulmonary complaints.

THE BROTHERHOOD

Of Locomotive Engineers—A Short History of the Organization.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers is one of the oldest and strongest guilds in the country, and it has long enjoyed the reputation of being also one of the most conservative. Its motto is "Sobriety, Truth, Justice and Morality" and in its twenty-five years of existence it has been remarkable for its policy of discountenancing strikes. It is over ten years since the brotherhood has countenanced a strike, and indeed there is a provision in its constitution against striking until all other means of adjusting the grievances of its members have been exhausted. The Brotherhood was organized in 1863, and in the intervening years has had but three grand chiefs. The first was a man named Mr. Mudge, the second Charles G. Wilson and the third P. M. Arthur. It now includes over four hundred local divisions and has a membership of over twenty-six thousand. The engines of nearly every important railroad in the country are manned by its members.

Mr. Arthur was elected grand chief in 1876, and has filled the office continuously up to the present time. Under his administration the Brotherhood men have had only one strike, that against the Boston and Maine Railroad company in 1887.

Mr. Arthur is between fifty and sixty years old. He was for many years an engineers on the New York Central road.

At the time of the brakemen's strike in 1877, out of which grew the Pittsburg and other riots, strenuous efforts were made to get the Brotherhood men on the Pennsylvania and New York Central and Hudson River railroads system to strike, but they firmly refused. So gratified was the late William H. Vanderbilt at the Brotherhood's course in this matter that he sent his check for $100,000 to the local head of the order to be divided among the members employed on the New York Central and Hudson River system. Another persistent effort to get the Brotherhood to quit their posts was made during the great strike on the Texas Pacific and the Missouri Pacific systems early in 1886. That strike was ordered by the Knights of Labor, and in consequence of their failure to induce the Brotherhood men to join them they have not since entertained the friendliest feelings for the latter organization.

Captain Bogardus Retires.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Capt. A. H. Bogardus, of Elkhart, Ind., the champion wing shot of the world, visited the Associated Press office and said he will not again compete for championship honors. Advancing years and domestic affliction are the moving causes. For seventeen years the captain has been champion of America, and since 1875 champion of the world. It was on May 25, 1871, that he shot his first match at Fleetwood Park, this city. Since then he has twice visited England. In sixteen matches shot there he was successful in all but one, and this defeat was owing to an injudicious charge of powder at a critical juncture. He says future championship matches must be made by younger men.

BROKEN BRAKES.

Just the other day a brave engineer, whose train ran away, dashing to destruction like a flash, was seen desperately wrenching off the cap of the steam chamber, in the hope of wasting the power thereby checking the speed. The brakes were useless, and his heroic efforts came too late. The engine leaped the track, overturned, and he was scalded to death by the very means he had resorted to to save life. He lingered a few hours, but a glance disclosed that there was no hope and there was no remedy to cure. Violent scalds or burns are in their nature incurable, but there are thousands of minor casualties of the kind occuring hourly in every house or large manufactory for which there is a remedy, soothing, sure and prompt, of which the following are proofs: Mr. Michael Higgins, Belcher & Taylor Agricultural Tool Co., Chicopee Falls, Mass., May 4, 1887, writes: "This company has used St. Jacobs Oil for years for their men for burns, cuts and bruises, and we know of nothing that compares with it." Mr. G. Oehrle, Lawrence, Kan., April 16, 1887, writes: "A lamp exploded in my office and in trying to put it out, I cut and burned my hand very badly with glass. St. Jacobs cured me." Mr. J. W. Mevis, 28 Rock street, Lowell, Mass, says; "For burns and chapped hands I know St. Jacobs Oil to be excellent." Mr. A. Schulte, Cleveland, Ohio, February 5, 1887: "We consider St. Jacobs Oil a very valuable remedy for burns." Mr. A. Maskey, Wexford, Pa., writes February 7, 1887: "I have used St. Jacobs Oil for years and know it to be the best for burns." Mr. J. W. Ames, Fairmont, Neb., February 7, 1887, says: "We find it just as efficacious for burns as for bites." Mr. W. A. Schroeder, Gilbertville, Ia., February 11, 1887: "I have used it for burns and can say it does its work as recommended." Of course, in violent burns and scalds, and the treatment of raw surfaces, the directions accompanying each bottle must be strictly followed. And if followed strictly, the soothing and curing influence of the remedy is beyond comparison. The cure is perfect, and a clear, smooth surface the result.

SOME DOCTORS

honestly admit that they can't cure Rheumatism and Neuralgia. Others say they can but—don't. Athlophoros says nothing but—cures. That's the secret of its success. Years of trial have proved it to be a quick, safe, sure cure.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 3, 1887

In my own family Athlophoros was used as a last resort, the user having suffered from rheumatism for years and having been treated for the disease by different physicians in this State and Massachusetts without even temporary relief. Upon my recommendation scores of people have used this remedy with the same results claimed for it. C. H. WILSON.

That's So

Relief is certain for the despondent feelings of the dyspeptic, the constipated habit of the sedentary, the headaches of the nervous and bilious, by the simple use of Simmons Liver Regulator,—easy to take, not nauseating or disgusting, not more bitter than a glass of beer and far more grateful. It is no intoxicating beverage, but it tones up the system, settles the stomach, assists digestion, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the Liver. Take it once and and you will discard all other medicines.

"I have used many remedies for Dyspepsia, Liver Affection and Debility; but never have found anything to benefit me to the extent that Simmons Liver Regulator has. I would advise all who are similarly affected to give it a trial as it seems the only thing that never fails to relieve."—P. M. JANNEY, Minneapolis, Minn.

The certainty with which this remedy acts has astonished the Medical Profession and secured for itself unbounded praise. Its virtues consist in being so gentle a cathartic, tonic and alterative, that in its operation it does not interrupt the usual duties of life, but acts so naturally that the system is not upset or afterwards constipated. It attacks all bilious disorders and sluggishness of the Liver; is harmless, and can be taken at any time without fear of injury.

"I have been a user of Simmons Liver Regulator for years, having made it my only family medicine. It is a sure, good and reliable medicine. My mother before me was very partial to it."—Rev. JAS. M. ROLLINS, Pastor M. E. Church, Fairfield, Va.

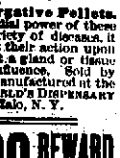
Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative LITTLE LIVER Pellets. The Original

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS. ALWAYS ASK FOR DR. PIERCE'S PELLETS, OR LITTLE SUGAR-COATED PILLS.

Being entirely vegetable, they operate without disturbance to the system, diet, or occupation. Put up in glass vials, hermetically sealed. Always fresh and reliable. As a laxative, alterative, or purgative, these little Pellets give the most perfect satisfaction.

SICK HEADACHE.



Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the stomach and bowels, are promptly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may truthfully be said that their action upon the system is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative influence. Sold by druggists, 25 cents a vial. Manufactured at the Chemical Laboratory of WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

$500 REWARD

is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of Chronic Nasal Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges; falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hawking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians.

By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "Cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrhal Headache. Sold by druggists everywhere; 50 cents.

"Untold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous mesmerist, of Ithaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nasal catarrh. My family physician gave me up as incurable, and said I must die. My case was such a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hoarse I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my throat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."

"Constantly Hawking and Spitting."

THOMAS J. RUSHING, Esq., 293 Pine Street, St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I was a great sufferer from catarrh for three years. At times I could hardly breathe, and was constantly hawking and spitting, and for the last eight months could not breathe through the nostrils. I thought nothing could be done for me. Luckily, I was advised to try Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I am now a well man. I believe it to be the only sure remedy for catarrh now manufactured, and one has only to give it a fair trial to experience astounding results and a permanent cure."

Three Bottles Cure Catarrh.

ELI ROBBINS, Runyan P. O., Columbia Co., Pa., says: "My daughter had catarrh when she was five years old, very badly. I saw Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy advertised, and procured a bottle for her, and soon saw that it helped her; a third bottle effected a permanent cure. She is now eighteen years old and sound and hearty."

General Use of Irrigation.

There was a curious message sent by the governor of Nebraska to the governor of Colorado, protesting against taking any more water from the South Platte river in Colorado, because it was drying up the Platte river in Nebraska. It was the first message of the kind, I think, ever sent in the west, but it will not be the last one. It shows that the water in the great rivers will one day be in contest, and their distribution on the lands along their banks become a subject of interstate legislation. The day will come when from irrigation the volume of water in the great Missouri and Mississippi will be materially decreased and when one may at certain seasons of the year cross over dry shod at the mouth of streams where steamers now float, as at the mouth of the Yellowstone in Montana.

Nor will the system of irrigation be confined to the west, for it will spread eastward, and before many years be brought into general use. When I think of my old father's farm in Pennsylvania and our dread of drought it makes me half angry at our stupidity. Through this farm ran a fine stream of water and we saw the crops die for want of water on its very banks. Had we had sense enough to put a dam in the creek at the top of the farm we could have thrown out its waters on the land and defied the drought. But no one thought of it, or rather we did not know anything about irrigation. Such a thing could not occur there again with me as the loss of the crop for want of water, and I doubt if it will be long until even the dullest of our farmers come to understand the advantages of irrigation and how to distribute water from the adjacent streams upon their lands.—Gen. James S. Brisbin in New York Tribune.

Naval Station in the West Indies.

Professor Stephen G. Williams is of the opinion that the United States should establish a naval station in the West Indies. The United States does not own a foot of ground in the whole stretch of country between Cape Horn and Florida, and in case of war would be at great disadvantage. Professor Williams, after careful observation, has picked out the West Indies as the most suitable place for the station. Cuba would be too great a load to shoulder, and Hayti is rejected, chiefly because of its size and the ungovernable character of its inhabitants. But there is an island, Professor Williams thinks, which must have been intended for the United States to use for naval reserve purposes. That is St. Thomas.

St. Thomas could not probably be purchased from Denmark without taking also the islands of Santa Cruz and St. Johns. The whole would cost about $8,000,000. The population of the group is about 35,000. In case of a canal being completed, connecting the Atlantic and Pacific, the value of St. Thomas would be increased. England has Jamaica, and France and Spain both have commanding situations. With St. Thomas in its possession, the United States, Professor Williams thinks, would be on an equal footing with the other powers. As Denmark is supposed to be somewhat in need of money, and desirous of selling its West Indian possessions, it is suggested that the United States should step to the front and not let the golden opportunity slip by.—Demorest's Monthly.

Washington's Log Cabin.

Most biographers and historians in their lives of Washington fail to mention an interesting relic of his youth, which might also be called a landmark in America's history. It is only a common log cabin which Washington, at 16 years of age, and George William Fairfax built and occupied while surveying that part of Shenandoah valley now embraced in Clark county.

At that time the land upon which she building stood belonged to Lord Halifax, but was afterward owned by Col. Daniel Morgan, of revolutionary fame, who moved the cabin a few feet from its original site and turned it into a spring house, for which purpose it is still used. Irving described it as a "kind of lodge in the wilderness," and says: "It was situated not far from the Shenandoah, and about twelve miles from the site of the present town of Winchester." The house today looks pretty much as it must have looked then, although, from time to time, as the lower logs have decayed they have been replaced by new ones; yet it is virtually just as Washington left it, except that it is now surrounded by cultivated fields, a younger generation, and more hallowed memories.—Washington Post.

Future of the Colored Race.

Care comes with competence. People who are troubled about to-morrow are more thoughtful to-day. A race with only animal pleasures and instincts increase like animals under favorable conditions as to climate. Fecundity and thought are antagonistic. Hence "a poor man for children," not because he is poor in pocket, but in brains. The Irish peasantry have almost run the Yankees out of New England. They have from ten to fifteen children. The New England rule is two. The black population advances in numbers like a glacier advances, slowly and steadily, and no temporary device will stop it. When the negro is become as anxious to provide for the future as the whites, their crania will be larger and longer, but their families smaller. No microbe will destroy them, as it does the Australian rabbits. The only plan is to dose them liberally with cook books.—Chicago Times.

A Story of the War.

Maj. Andrew B. Wells, who rode in the famous charge of the Eighth Pennsylvania cavalry at Chancellorsville, received a note, while in Virginia during the war, from a Confederate maiden, asking him to do her some slight service. The gallant major rode to her house, outside the Union lines, and was captured by the enemy. He was sent to Libby prison, and narrowly escaped hanging. For a quarter of a century he cherished a grudge against that fair southern girl, who, as he thought, had lured him into danger. A few days ago he learned her address and wrote to her. In reply to his letter she proved her innocence of all thought of treachery, and told of her endeavors to save him from hanging.—San Francisco Argonaut.

A Word About the Squash.

The squash is one of our tender annuals, and should not be planted until all danger of frost is past. Again, the seed itself is liable to rot in damp, cool weather. Fine plaster is about as good an article as has yet been found for driving away bugs. The crop must be gathered before it is nipped in frost or it will not keep well. A dozen hills of the summer kinds will be enough, but of the fall or winter sorts, five or six rows should be planted.

Altogether, 1,023 novels, of which 625 were reprints of English works, were published in the United States last year.

Democracy Sets the Pace.

The selection of St. Louis as the place of meeting for the Democratic national convention will meet with general approval. It is always good policy to begin a political campaign in a political stronghold of the party. St. Louis and the state of Missouri are joined to the Democracy by bands of steel, and will give the nominee an appropriate send off.—Philadelphia Record.

A Slogan of Triumph.

The action of the national committee is a message to the Democracy of the nation which will strengthen their confidence, arouse their enthusiasm and inspire them with an energy and resolution that will render them invincible in the campaign. By the same token it will demoralize and dishearten the opposition.—Indianapolis Sentinel.

The First in the Field.

The national committee has done a wise thing in naming an earlier day for the Democratic convention than the date of the Republican convention. To be first in the field is everything when an aggressive fight for a good cause is the requisite of victory, and this is certainly the necessity in the coming contest.—Richmond Times.

More of an Undertaking.

The St. Louis convention will have a bigger job on its hands this year than the one that is to be held in Chicago. The former will have to name a president, while the latter will simply have to choose a historian-at-large for its party.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

On the Run.

From all sources comes approval of the early date fixed for the Democratic national convention. The party is strong enough to show its hand first. The other side is all broken up. The Republicans are on the run. The thing to do is keep them there.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

An Early Aggressive Campaign.

We congratulate the Democratic national committee upon the result of its meeting at Washington. In the selection of St. Louis it has fixed the convention at a central point, in a city affording ample accommodations and loyal to Democratic purposes.—Manchester Union.

The Date Shows Good Judgment.

The national Democratic committee did a wise thing in reconsidering the determination of the day before and fixing the date of the convention June 5.—Boston Post.

A Fortunate Selection.

The selection of St. Louis as the place for the holding of the Democratic national convention is a fortunate one for the Democracy.—Milwaukee Journal.

Victory in '76, Victory in '88.

St. Louis well received the national Democratic convention in 1876 and has claims to the same distinction in 1888.—Buffalo Courier.

The Next President.

The next president is to be nominated in St. Louis. This is satisfaction enough for one day.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Magnetism All Gone.

Those who saw Mr. James G. Blaine when he was in London last year at the jubilee, will not be surprised at his letter from Florence declining to be put in nomination as Republican candidate for the American presidency. Mr. Blaine looked as if he were utterly exhausted. His energy and his magnetic powers seemed to have evaporated.—Pall Mall Gazette.

The True Inwardness of Things.

The "anti-saloon Republican convention" will be held in New York in April. It will be largely composed of delegates to the saloon Republican convention in Chicago.—St. Louis Republican.

A Sign of the Times.

There is an old superstition that a year with three eights in it is a lucky year.—Atlanta Constitution.

Peculiar in medicinal merit and wonderful cures—Hood's Sarsaparilla. Now is the time to take it, for now it will do the most good.

Colored Nabobs.

When the New York papers referred to N. W. Cuney as being the richest colored man in Texas; they had evidently not heard of the Lincoln family, now residing at Dallas, six children in all, who have come into possession of $48,000,000, giving them the snug little fortune of $8,000,000 apiece. The party in Galveston bears the illustrious cognomen of Abraham Lincoln. When asked if he had matured any plans for investing this vast estate, he replied that they had decided to invest it all in United States bonds. "The interest on the bonds," said he, "will give us more than enough to live on, with a good margin for speculation without touching the principal. It is also a safe investment, and carries with it an immunity from taxation."

When asked by what means such enormous wealth had been acquired by his family, he replied that it was inherited from his grandmother, Fanny Ellis, who resided at Dallas, where she died a year or two ago. Fanny Ellis was a Mexican woman, and some forty years ago her husband acquired immense wealth in speculation in Mexican mining claims, which was deposited in the Bank of England. Preceding the late civil war they bought and sold slaves, and among one of their purchases from a slave-trader was the father of the six children who have recently gone in possession of the $48,000,000. The father married the daughter of his mistress, by whom he was set free, and the six children being the direct issue of that marriage, establish the claim of direct inheritance. Some litigation was necessary in establishing their claim, and it was only a few days ago that they acquired actual possession of their fabulous inheritance. —Galveston News.

Take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in the spring of the year, to purify the blood, invigorate the system, excite the liver to action, and restore healthy tone and vigor to the whole physical mechanism. Remember that quality, not quantity, constitutes the value of medicine.

Persian Mosques.

The interior of a Persian Mosque is always the same. There is the courtyard; it may be small, it may be paved with stone, brick, or tile work, it is always surrounded by a wall, which may be high or low. Invariably there is a vessel of drinking water, and a haux or tank for performing the necessary ablutions. The drinking water receptacle may be a crock or stone vessel resembling a font, or a similar receptacle in metal or brass, copper, silver, or even gold. The mosque itself may be a mere mud hovel; but even in these cases there is usually some slight attempt at a domed roof. It may be of plain brick or stone—which is, however, very rarely employed in Persia in the building of mosques—or it may be built of brick covered inside and out with tile work, such as cannot be imagined for elegance and beauty by the untraveled European. A good Persian Mosque appears like a vast edifice of blue and white porcelain. Sometimes it is of a light blue, sometimes of a deep indigo. The taste of these decorations is undeniable. Inscriptions and texts, the letters of which are three, four, and even six feet long, and may be read for miles are not uncommon. But a few years ago mosques and shrines were frequently despoiled of their choicest treasures—magnificent tiles covered with inscription in high relief, in blue, white, and gold, the letters of which were frequently decorated with a peculiar glaze (now a lost art in Persia) which made the inscriptions give forth a metallic luster and caused them, when the sun's rays fell upon them, to resemble masses of burnished gold. If the exterior of these mosques are magnificent, still more beautiful are the interiors; the walls and arches, the columns and floors, and the vast domes are covered with exquisitely executed work.

Opinion of a Leading Editor.

Almost all the diseases that afflict us from infancy to old age have their origin in a disordered liver. A really good liver medicine is the most important in the whole range of pharmacy. We believe Simmons Liver Regulator to be the best among them all. We pin our faith upon the Regulator, and if we could persuade every reader who is in ill health to buy it, we would willingly vouch for the benefit each would receive.—Ed. Cincinnati Gazette.

THE people of Sonoma have a new way of catching fish. They go down to the embarkadero at high tide and get into the creek, and by beating the water with long sticks and making a terrible noise they scare the fish back, and keep them back until the tide runs out; then the fish are left in the holes, and the men and boys attack them with spears, pitchforks, and clubs until they obtain all they want. A friend of ours caught a fine lot of carp there the other day, some of them weighing as much as three pounds each. These carp escaped from Poppe's fish pond, near Glen Ellen, some years ago, and have multiplied wonderfully. They now seem to enjoy the salt water better than the fresh.

To Assist Nature

In restoring diseased or wasted tissue is all that any medicine can do. In pulmonary affections, such as Colds, Bronchitis, and Consumption, the mucous membrane first becomes inflamed, then accumulations form in the air-cells of the lungs, followed by tubercles, and, finally, destruction of the tissue. It is plain, therefore, that, until the hacking cough is relieved, the bronchial tubes can have no opportunity to heal. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

Soothes and Heals

the inflamed membrane, arrests the wasting process, and leaves no injurious results. This is why it is more highly esteemed than any other pulmonary specific.

L. D. Bixby, of Bartonsville, Vt., writes: "Four years ago I took a severe cold, which was followed by a terrible cough. I was very sick, and confined to my bed about four months. My physician finally said I was in consumption, and that he could not help me. One of my neighbors advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and before I had taken half a bottle was able to go out. By the time I had finished the bottle I was well, and have remained so ever since."

Alonzo P. Daggett, of Smyrna Mills, Me., writes: "Six years ago, I was a traveling salesman, and at that time was suffering with

Lung Trouble.

For months I was unable to rest nights. I could seldom lie down, had frequent choking spells, and was often compelled to seek the open air for relief. I was induced to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which helped me. Its continued use has entirely cured me, and, I believe, saved my life."

Rohan, of Fort Wayne, an old soldier and a man prominent in the Knights of Labor organization in the state, has an open letter in the Sentinel, of that city, of Saturday last, in which he says that no possible good can come from a labor ticket this year; that this being true he can not belong to the republican party because of the present and past policy of that party, and that he shall vote and act with the democratic party because of its principles and its present honorable administration of affairs."

The Pennsylvania company has just decided to adopt openly the system of milling in transit rates which have been in practice on other eastern roads to a limited extent. It applies only to grain which by the new order of things may be shipped from one station to another eastward thereof at the regular rate, with the privilege of having it ground at an intermediate point. The conditions are that the grain must be consigned to a mill doing business on the line of the road, and that the flour must be reshipped within ten days after receipt of grain to Pittsburg or some point east thereof. This step has been taken by the Pennsylvania because the plan has been covertly in operation by its competitors. It will help to build up the milling industries along the Pennsylvania line.

Notice was posted in the Pittsburg and Fort Wayne round house to-day, giving the engineers and firemen an increase in wages. The firemen on through freight are given 5 cents more per day; on local freight between Crestline and Chicago, the engineers get an increase of 46 cents a day and the firemen a raise of 10 cents. Provision is made for extra time. The schedule, however, does not delight the men and they are not slow to say so.

A TERRIBLE TALE.

Martha Johns, an Insane Woman, Lashed to a Post by Her Husband.

This morning, people came in from Aboit township and filed with the sheriff and clerk application for readmission of Martha Johns to the state insane asylum.

The woman and husband live out in Aboit township in poor circumstances. Mrs. Johns is subject to insane freaks and was at one time an inmate of the state asylum. After her discharge she returned to her home in this county, but her malady recurred. Vexed at this her husband is said to have lashed her to an old-fashioned bed post in their house for days and nights at a time.

Her screams could be heard for miles and at last aroused neighborhood indignation.

Mr. Johns is subject to fits and at times is not responsible for his acts.
